RAILROAD DEAL.

Jack Kennedy Says the Missouri Pacific Tried to Buy Him! (Associated Press Night Report.)
KANSAS CITY, Oct. 10.—Jack Kennedy, who has been charged with the robbing of two Missouri Pacific trains in the outskirts of Kansas City and who was acquitted of one of the charges after two trials, is quoted by the Star as saying that the Missouri Pacific Company sent a man to him last week and offered to pay him to help them guarantee that no Missouri Pacific trains would be held up in Jack Kennedy's country, in which Kansas City is situated.
"The man who came to me," said

SECRET IS OUT

The Gallant Seventh Has Been Hoodooed.

Its Brief History Bristles With Fridays and Thirteens.

The Fatal Spell Includes Even "Col. John R. Berry."

Regiment Left Los Angeles and Will Arrive Here on the "Unlucky" Day of the Week—Thirteen Officers at the First Mess.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 10.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] All the baleful influences that have proverbially attached themselves to Fridays and Thirteens struck the Seventh California Regiment five months ago, and every man in Berry's command is satisfied it has accomplished the regiment's undoing. Over the track of the Seventh during the encampment here thirteen and Fridays are as leaves in the way of the winter wind. Nor has the end arrived. Not until the troops reach Los Angeles will the curious coincidence of numbers and days, fraught with all sorts of things disastrous, have an appropriate termination in the disbandment of the regiment.

The Seventh will start for Los Angeles Thursday morning, October 13, and will arrive in that city Friday. The regiment left Los Angeles May 6, which happened to be Friday. There were thirteen cars in the section occupied by the Seventh. At the first mess spread for the officers at the Presidio camp, the number of chairs was thirteen and there were thirteen officers present. And it was Friday.

The first detail of guard duty was composed of thirteen non-commissioned officers and privates. About this time the superstitiously-inclined volunteers waxed nervous and looked for earthquakes.

There was a lull until one Friday, when a detail of thirteen men was sent to the transport Scandia to make preparations for the Seventh's departure. That detail found the same revoked on the evening of that same Friday.

Then came the order mustering out the Seventh and Sixth California regiments, and the arithmeticians of the Seventh say seven and six make thirteen. Applications for the Seventh's transportation were sent to division headquarters yesterday, and the quartermaster expects the cars will be ready to move early Thursday morning. There will be forty of them to carry 1150 men. The Red Cross Society and the citizens of Los Angeles have informed the officers that preparations are made for an elaborate reception, and the desire is expressed that the regiment be scheduled to arrive about 10 a.m., Friday.

After a parade, the companies will go to the various towns in which they were enlisted, and will be mustered out a month later, making six months' term of service in the field.

IMPORTED LABOR.

Gov. Tanner Asserts His Authority in the Strike Matter.
[A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.]
SPRINGFIELD (Ill.), Oct. 10.—Gov. Tanner had a sharp controversy over the telephone with Manager Lukens of the Chicago Virden Company in regard to sending troops to Virden, where the operators have been planning to use imported negroes to fill the places of strikers.

Manager Lukens, in reply to a question, said he proposed to import labor and would operate his mine, if necessary, at the muzzle of Winchester. Gov. Tanner said he would not send troops to assist the operators in running their mines with imported labor, and if the operators attempted to enforce their ideas in regard to Winchester he would send the National Guard to Virden to disarm all.

In regard to the situation at Pana, Gov. Tanner said, if the operators persisted in employing imported labor he would withdraw the troops from that place.

CRAZY GRIPMAN.

Ran His Train Through Crowded Chicago Without Accident.

[A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.]
CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—John B. Jensen, a gripman on the South State street cable line, became suddenly insane, and while in that condition ran his train, loaded with passengers from Twenty-second to Madison street, a distance of over two miles, without accident. When the train was ready to make its return trip, Jensen's reason returned, and, realizing his condition and fearing a return of the mania, he called a policeman and asked to be cared for. When taken to the police station Jensen was raving again, but became quiet after a time. He had no recollection of bringing his car from Twenty-second street up through the crowded business thoroughfares, and his responses to the conductor's signals were entirely mechanical. Several days ago Jensen was struck on the head by a lever at the car barns in an accident, and severely injured. This is supposed to be the cause of his insanity.

Pittsburgh Enterprise Abroad.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—The representative of a Pittsburgh company is negotiating for twenty acres of land on the banks of the Manchester ship canal, where it is proposed to erect a manufacturing plant of non-corrosive metal which will employ 5000 men.

OIL STEAMER AFIRE.

The Weehawken Aground on Cherry Island Flats.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 10.—The British steamer Weehawken is aground and on fire on Cherry Island flats in the Delaware River, about twenty miles below this city. The Weehawken cleared from this port for Venice on Saturday with a cargo of over one million gallons of oil valued at about $40,000. The pilot of the German steamer Guther from Plymouth for Philadelphia, which arrived at Marcus Cook this morning, reports that the Weehawken will be a total loss. The crew escaped from the burning vessel and ran alongside in a small boat. The flames are coming out of the funnels and the bunkers, and the fire is at, but there is little likelihood of confining it to that part of the vessel. UNION PACIFIC MEETING.

FIFTEEN DIRECTORS TO BE ELECTED AT SALT LAKE.

The State Agreed Upon Will Make No Change in the Company's Affairs—Largely a Legal Formality—Rumors About the Short Line.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
SALT LAKE (Utah), Oct. 10.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] At noon tomorrow, in this city, the reorganized Union Pacific Railroad Company will hold its first annual stockholders' meeting. At this meeting fifteen directors will be elected and such other business will be transacted as may legally come before the meeting. In possession of proxies representing nearly the whole stock of the company, they arrived in the city this evening several directors who will vote stock at the meeting. With the directors were Union Pacific officials and Oregon Short Line directors, who came to attend this and their own stockholders' meeting Wednesday.

The slate agreed upon for tomorrow's election will not make any change in Union Pacific affairs. The dominating force on the directory will be the same as heretofore so plainly represented by Marvin Huggitt. Representation will also be given to the older Union Pacific officials, as well as to all interests in the city this evening several directors who will vote stock at the meeting. With the directors were Union Pacific officials and Oregon Short Line directors, who came to attend this and their own stockholders' meeting Wednesday.

Considerable interest of much local importance is attached to the Oregon Short Line meeting Wednesday, owing to persistent rumors that the effect that the road is again to be controlled by the Union Pacific. None of the officials would talk tonight, beyond saying that the two meetings here would be merely formal legal affairs. It is a very safe prediction, however, that no sensational developments will occur.

PACIFIC COAST MEETING.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SEATTLE (Wash.), Oct. 10.—The first annual meeting of the stockholders of the Pacific Coast Company will be held in New York Wednesday for the purpose of electing a board of directors. Although the Oregon Improvement Company has been succeeded several months by the Pacific Coast Company, the latter corporation has never perfected its organization. People who are familiar with the past history of the relations between the Pacific Coast Company and the Northern Pacific predict that tomorrow's meeting will result in the choice of directors, in which the Northern Pacific or its friends will predominate.

SOME OLD STAGERS.

TIME-WORN CASES AGAIN BEFORE THE SUPREME COURT.

That August Bode Meets After Its Summer Vacation—Added Interest in Its Reassembling—No Call on the President.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—The fall term of the Supreme Court of the United States began at noon today, the justices coming together after an extended summer vacation. The courtroom was crowded with prominent members of the Federal bar, including Attorney-General, Solicitor-General, and the various department heads. The first case called for argument was that of Ex parte Young, a habeas corpus case involving the release of a prisoner from the military prison at Fort Leavenworth. The case was argued by the prisoner's counsel, and the government's position was maintained by the attorney-general.

Chief Justice Fuller announced that the annual custom was to meet and adjourn on the opening day in order to join in a call of respect to the President, but owing to the President's absence from the city, the court would hear motions today and begin calling the docket tomorrow. The motions were of a formal character for adjournment, etc.

The old Albra mining cases were put at the foot of the assigned cases October 17. The case of United States vs. the United States, involving the seizure of several millions of alcohol, was set for November 14. At 12:30 o'clock the court adjourned until tomorrow, when the call of the docket begins. The first decisions are expected to be handed down next Monday.

Dr. Gullford Remanded.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—Dr. Nance Gullford, the midwife of Bridgeport, Ct., under arrest here on the charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of Emma Gill, was again remanded for a week today. Counsel for the prisoner said his client did not dispute her identity with the Mrs. Gullford, who is wanted by the Connecticut police.

FRENCH FLUNK

No Desire to Engage Great Britain.

Salisbury Evidently Knew Just What He Was About.

His Procedure Receiving Great Applause at Home.

Publication of the Fashoda Blue Book Regarded as the Burning of His Bridges—The Paris Press Pleads for Moderation.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
LONDON, Oct. 10.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The comments in the newspapers show that the Marquis of Salisbury's determined stand on the question of the occupation of Fashoda has come as a most agreeable relief, and as disposing of all theories of compromise. No whisper of dissent is heard anywhere. Both friends and opponents of the Premier are rejoicing in the fact that in publishing the blue book on the Fashoda question he has burned his bridges behind him.

While it is recognized that the situation, by this publication, has become more difficult for France, there is almost entire absence of disposition anywhere to believe that France proposes to press her claims to the point of danger, and this confidence was demonstrated by the capital tone of the stock exchange after a monetary scare. Such comment as comes from Paris also tends to abate alarm.

The Marquis, which is directly inspired by the French officials, voices today the more pacific mood which is apparently obtaining in Paris, saying: "We shall probably not risk a war with Great Britain for nominal sovereignty over territory at an immense distance from our possessions on the Atlantic. They are as inaccessible from our coast as the mountains of the moon. We can retain our honor without retaining Fashoda. Prudence should prevent us from overloading ourselves with too much territory. We must be colonial, but in moderation."

The newspapers of Paris this evening take a calm view of the situation, and plead for moderation. They express a sincere desire for a friendly settlement of the question, when Maj. Marchand's report arrives.

But the prevailing view of political men is that the French Cabinet may find a way out of the difficulty in the report expected from Maj. Marchand, whom it is expected, in response to a hint from the French Foreign Office, will declare that his position at Fashoda is untenable. The publication of such a report, it is held, will fully justify the French government in recalling him.

San Jose Presbytery Meets.

SANTA CRUZ, Oct. 10.—The San Jose Presbytery began its session today. Rev. J. Dinamore of San Jose preached the sermon.

HOAR'S TELEGRAM.

President McKinley's Condolence on the Former's Nephew's Death.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
WORCESTER (Mass.), Oct. 10.—Senator Hoar has received the following telegram: "EXECUTIVE MANSION, Washington (D. C.) Hon. George F. Hoar, Worcester, Mass.: I send you my sympathy in the death of your noble nephew who, in his ministrations to our sick and dying soldiers, gave his life to his country. Will you convey to his family my sincere condolences?" [Signed] "WILLIAM MCKINLEY."

HE HAD THREE DAYS.

ONE FOR THE WEDDING AND TWO FOR THE HONEYMOON.

Romance of Lieut. William P. Miller, Now on His Way to Honolulu. How the Busy Naval Officer Must Catch Sweets on the Wing.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A pretty romance is woven about the courtship and marriage of Lieut. and Mrs. William P. Miller, now on their way to Honolulu, where the officer has been assigned to the position of flag lieutenant of the Pacific squadron. Early in March Lieut. Miller was with Dewey at Hongkong. He was engaged to the daughter of Commander Bowman H. McCalla, and a somewhat long engagement was regarded as one of the probabilities.

Suddenly the young lieutenant was ordered home. When he reached San Francisco Miller found that war was likely to be declared at any moment. Hurrying across the continent, the sailor reported at the Navy Department and asked for thirty days' leave of absence. He had already written his fiancée asking her consent to a marriage during his furlough. The young lieutenant's dismay can be imagined when he was told that he could have just three days.

"Why, I am going to be married, and I must have time," expostulated the lieutenant.

"That can be done in one day, which will leave two days for the honeymoon," was the answer.

Miller rushed to the telegraph office and sent a message whose tenor was: "Only got three days' leave; meet me at Hampton Roads; be married to-morrow."

The bride-elect was at the trying place, duly chaperoned, and the wedding took place. When the three days were up, Lieut. Miller was pacing the quarters of the gunboat Onida, then stationed at Mobile, Ala. He had been appointed to its command, and leaving his bride-of-a-day behind, had gone to fight the battles of his country. This morning the reunited couple left Chicago for San Francisco.

BIG FOREST FIRES.

They are Gaining Momentum Again in Colorado.

[A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.]
MARBLE (Colo.), Oct. 10.—The big forest fires are gaining momentum again. The fall of snow a week ago in the Elk Mountain range having proved only a temporary check. The cattle herds are being moved from the muddy meadows, as prairie fires are sweeping them. The intermountainous country is ablaze in several places, one of the heaviest of fires devastating the country between State and East River and the Pittsburgh breakers, and the town of Gothic is again threatened. A big blaze has been started on Bellevue Mountain, on the Maroon trail of East Rock Creek. From the West Elk Mountains come reports of the narrow escape of a party of Crystal prospectors, who had to move camp three times in one night.

Points of the News in Today's Times.

[THE BUDGET—This morning's fresh telegraphic budget, received since dark last night, includes the principal Associated Press (or night) report, many exclusive Times dispatches, making about 16 columns. In addition is a day report, not so voluminous or fresh, of about 10 columns—the whole making a mass of wired news aggregating the large volume of 26 columns. PLEASED REDS

They are on the Right Side of Bacon.

Easy Terms Conceded on Which to Make Their Peace.

If They Come in and Be Good They May Live.

In Event of Resistance the Bear Islanders Will Be the Darkest Kind of Redskins—Troops for the Scare Districts.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
WALKER (Minn.), Oct. 10.—The Indian council was held at the agency this afternoon, and was attended by Flat Mouth and representative delegations. Gen. Bacon and Inspector Tinker told the Bear Islanders that if they would give up the men for whom warrants have been issued and come in themselves, they could go home. If they resisted, the government would not rest till the recalcitrants had been captured, and that the Bear Islanders would not be allowed to occupy the islands again.

The message was read to the hostiles by runners today. Gen. Bacon's terms were received by the chiefs with signs of evident pleasure, and they all signified their approval of them. It is believed the Pillagers will accept them.

SCARE-KILLERS TRAVELING.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

ST. PAUL, Oct. 10.—Two companies of militia started from Duluth this afternoon for Bemidji, that town having called for protection.

BACON BACKED.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Officials of both the War Department and the Interior Department are inclined to the belief that the seriousness of the Indian uprising in Minnesota has been exaggerated. They are not disposed, however, to take anything for granted. Addit-Gen. Corbin telegraphed Gen. Bacon tonight saying he could have all the troops he might deem necessary to quell the demonstrations of the hostiles. The Fourth Infantry, now at Fort Sheridan, Chicago, and the Seventeenth Infantry, now at Columbia Barracks, have been placed at Gen. Bacon's disposal. Both regiments are prepared to move to the scene of the uprising at a few hours' notice.

FUGITIVE WOMAN.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 10.—The following telegram has just been received from Superintendent Blanchard of the Northern Pacific at Walker, Minn.: "Woman just in at McGregor from Portage Lake, four miles west of here, reports two dozen Indians in war paint, drove her from her home. She thinks her husband and father are killed. This is the first and only trouble reported along our line. Will you notify proper State authorities? I will take a deputy and a dozen men with guns from Carleton."

WHITE EARTH COUNCIL.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WHITE EARTH (Minn.), Oct. 10.—A grand council composed of thirty chiefs and head men, including leading mixed-bloods of the White Earth reservation, representing some 3000 people, was held here today. Resolutions were adopted deploring the sad state of affairs existing at Leech Lake, and denouncing the authors of the mischief. A memorial of loyalty to the government was signed by all present.

BACON AND CLOUGH.

The General Consulting With the Governor—A Chief's Telegram.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 10.—The Federal and State authorities are now working in harmony toward the quelling of the Indian trouble. Gen. Bacon is expected to come down from Walker this evening to confer with Gov. Clough, but the latter advised conference by wire. He received the following telegram from Gen. Bacon: "Situation bad. Conference yesterday resulted in nothing. None of the Indian chiefs were there. Lumbermen are coming into Walker. Troops are needed at Cass Lake."

Nevertheless the Governor believes that the situation is well in hand, and that the recalcitrants are practically surrounded by the soldiers. The construction crews on the northwest extension of the Brainerd and Northern to Bemidji and northward to Cass Lake have joined the redskins at Walker, and it may be necessary to send them back to work under guard, as these two extensions, in the event of a prolongation of the trouble, would be of great strategic value. Troops may yet be placed at three more points in addition to the present forces at Foston Line points; these are where the line crosses the Mississippi, the Indian Portage trail, three miles west of Bemidji, and Ball Club Lake. With these avenues of escape cut off, it would be practically impossible for the hostiles to escape. From Park River the Governor has received a personal statement signed by Chief Ned-Gay-Bug-Knowaway-Ruckoo: "The Pine Point (Ind.) Oct. 10.—We, the Chippewa Indians at Pine Point, beg to state to the public that we are perfectly friendly to the whites, and have no ill-feeling nor are we in any

CALIFORNIANS IN IT.

NEXT EXPEDITION TO MANILA IS MADE UP.

Capt. Steele's Battery D of Heavy Artillery and Battery A are Among the Elect.

SENATOR'S APPOINTMENT.

ONE OF THE BATTERIES TO GO ON THAT TRANSPORT.

Bad Pies and Stale Chicken Figure in Testimony Before the War Board. Alleged Testimony not Satisfactory.

[A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.]
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 10.—Gen. Merriam has chosen the following forces to constitute the next and presumably the final expedition to the Philippines:

Officers.	Men.
Third Battalion Twenty-third Infantry and Oregon recruits.	15,643
Batteries A and D, California Heavy Artillery.	2,397
Wyoming Light Artillery.	2,109
Nevada Cavalry.	3,138
First Washington Infantry.	43,138
Twentieth Kansas Infantry.	43,138
First Tennessee.	43,138
Fifty-first Iowa Infantry.	43,138
Total.	191,578

In most of the regiments and detachments a great falling-off from their original strength is to be observed, which is accounted for by absentees on leave, on sick furlough, on detached service, in the general hospital, and by discharges, desertions and deaths.

HOW THEY GO.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 10.—Gen. Merriam has decided to send to Manila upon the transport Valencia and Ohio the First Washington Regiment and Battery A of the California Heavy Artillery. Col. Wholly of the Washington regiment was instructed to make all necessary preparations for embarking his command on or about Tuesday, October 18.

The Senator will carry the Twenty-third Infantry Battalion, the Oregon recruits and Battery D of the California Heavy Artillery. The men going on this expedition will not be compelled to subsist on the regular army rations, but a considerable variety of food will be allowed on the voyage.

THE SIXTH CALIFORNIA.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 10.—The Sixth California Regiment tomorrow will be paid off for the last time. The soldiers and given a thirty-days' furlough. It is expected that the end of the thirty days mustering-out arrangements will have been completed and the regiment will then be dissolved. About fifty of the men have preferred to take their discharge now, though in doing so they sacrifice a month's pay and rations.

WORK ON TRANSPORTS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 10.—Work on the transport steamers Valencia, Indiana, Senator and Ohio is progressing, but it will be next Sunday at the earliest before the Senator, the first of the ships to be ready for sea, can be dispatched. It is probable that she will carry the Twenty-third United States Infantry and the recruits of the Second Oregon Regiment. The Valencia will be ready some time next week, but the troops to go on her have not been assigned.

ANGRY NEW YORKERS.

Threaten to Raid the Jail at Lexington.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
LEXINGTON (Ky.), Oct. 10.—As a result of the killing of a private in the Twelfth New York Regiment by Provost Guard Kitchen last night, 300 or 400 members of that regiment formed a mob tonight and seized a train at Camp Hamilton with the intention of coming to town on it and raiding the County Jail for the purpose of taking Kitchen out and lynching him.

Gen. Wiley and Col. Wood were quickly notified of the uprising, and they suppressed the mob by the most rapid and prompt action. The outbreak was unexpected, and the jail was heavily guarded. The provost guard in this city was also doubled, and things are now quiet at midnight. It is believed that prompt measures that were taken have prevented what promised to be a very serious affair.

When Capt. Holbrook, adjutant-general on Gen. Wade's staff, ordered all peaceful soldiers to return to the camp, a corporal spoke up and said: "All who do are cowards." Capt. Holbrook asked him to what regiment he belonged, and he answered: "The big four."

Capt. Holbrook told him that there was no way to speak to an officer. The soldier made some reply and Holbrook grasped him by the arm. The soldier tore himself away, leaving his coat sleeve in the hands of the provost guard, drawing a gun, fired at Holbrook. The bullet missed the captain. The corporal then climbed under a car. Lieut. Langdon followed him, and shot at twice. The soldier escaped. Many of the Twelfth New York Regiment had to be clubbed into submission. The Sixth Massachusetts Regiment was placed on special guard around Camp Hamilton.

Later, a report reached camp that the mob was forming in town. The entire One Hundred and Sixtieth Regiment was sent to town about 11 o'clock. A guard of fifty men has been placed around the jail and a fire, Sheriff and deputies armed with Winchester rifles, are protecting the prisoners. Kitchen is badly scared, and fears he will yet be lynched.

Col. Gunder of the One Hundred and Sixtieth Indiana and his men patrolled the streets going through every restaurant, saloon and open-house in town and arresting every soldier. Officers are arrested the same as men. All are taken to Loudon Park, with the regiment guarding them. Over five hundred were arrested. There is not a soldier in town now except the provost guard. Capt. Gaines, in charge of the provost guard, tonight ordered his men not to shoot unless compelled to do so, but when they did, to take aim to kill.

Officers say Kitchen will unquestionably get his death sentence. When he shot Dygren he was under orders to have even his gun loaded. It is said Col. Leonard of the Twelfth New York was the principal promoter of the mob. The matter will be thoroughly investigated tomorrow.

LOST ONE EN ROUTE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—The transport Bertha, Capt. Wilson, arrived today from Porto Rico, via Santiago, with a number of officers and 206 convalescent soldiers, and laborers and several civilians. While the Bertha was off Robbins Reef, Steward John McKenna jumped overboard and was drowned. He had just before he went over the side that he was going to take a swim.

KEMM'S FAMILY TROUBLE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
ST. LOUIS, Oct. 10.—Charles Kemm, a private in Co. E, Second Missouri Volunteers, stationed at Louisville, Ky., who is now here on a furlough, to-day shot and killed Louis Wesley, a negro with whom he found his wife living. Before coming to St. Louis to live, Kemm served four years in the regular army. He is in jail.

DRUNKEN RUFIAN SHOT.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
JACKSONVILLE (Fla.), Oct. 10.—John Corbett of the First North Carolina was shot and fatally wounded to-night by Clint Robinson, Fourth Illinois, while intoxicated. Corbett assaulted Robinson with an axe. Robinson at first shot into the air, but finally had to bring Corbett down to save his own life. He is in jail.

THE RETIRING GENERALS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—The order designating the general officers to be mustered out of service dated October 7 was published officially today, and at the head of the list is Maj.-Gen. Joseph C. Breckinridge, who returns to duty November 30 as inspector-general of the army. Gen. Wheeler, who will command the Fourth Corps, is expected to resume his seat in the House soon after it meets. Gen. Graham, who is to command the Second Corps, has been retired as brigadier-general, and the question has arisen as to whether he shall be continued longer in the volunteer service. The Attorney-General has rendered an opinion that there is no reason why he should not, but there is a feeling among army officers that this would not be altogether fair to the young men, and it is probable that Gen. Bates and Gen. Lawton will succeed to the Second and Fourth Corps and Gen. Wilson will continue to command the First Corps.

WAR INQUIRY.

Bad Pies and Stale Chicken.

Typhoid Treatment.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Capt. J. H. Culver, Troop A, of the United States Volunteer Cavalry (Grigsby Rough Riders), was before the War Investigating Commission today. He had been stationed at Camp Thomas, Chickamauga, from May until he was mustered out on the 11th of September. The food generally was abundant and good.

Capt. Culver stated that at one time twenty-two of his men were sick. He thought the proportion not too high, no greater than during the first days of the civil war, and until the men learned to depend upon the army rations, and not get outside for food. He thought the pies sold to the men were unwholesome, and also said that much stale fried chicken was sold to them. In conclusion, Capt. Culver said he had no complaint to make of treatment, except in the location of his troop in the woods. He had protested against the location, but was told to move on. Capt. Culver was followed by Dr. James H. Hysell, who was chief surgeon of the Third Division of the First Army Corps, and who was located at Camp Thomas from the 7th of June to the 21st of August. He had been a surgeon in the civil war, and since then said he had been in general practice.

All the early cases of typhoid were treated in the regimental hospitals, and the patients were not isolated until after the construction of the division hospitals, when typhoid and suspicious cases were isolated, and the men were well attended by physicians and nurses. There had been 1100 cases of all kinds of diseases treated in the hospitals, and fifteen deaths.

COMMISSIONER GALLAGHER TESTIFIES.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Dr. Hysell thought typhoid had been imported into the camp from the outside, and that it had been due to the failure to properly cover over the sinks. He did not think it possible to effectually isolate typhoid fever cases, as typhoid is so difficult to detect in its early stages. All reasonable precautions had been taken in locating the camp to prevent the development of disease. He admitted that in case of another war, by the experience of the past, more effective means could be provided.

At the afternoon session, the commission examined Maj. J. J. Gallagher. He had served at Siboney, San Juan and Santiago, and recently had the position of commissary sergeant at Montauk. At Siboney the rations, he said, were forwarded almost as rapidly as landed. Only very small quantities could be accumulated, yet the commissary during their stay at Siboney had been able to meet all requirements made upon them for provisions by the troops and none of them were ever refused. He heard no complaint of lack of rations, as they were able to forward about thirty thousand rations per day.

From Siboney the depot was removed to El Paso, seven miles inland. At this point there were never enough rations to fill all the requisitions. There was a shortage in corn, sugar, and wheat, which continued for two or three days because of the high surf at Siboney. All the rations were good, but in some cases the bread was not baked, and in some cases the bread was thrown aside and not used. Some potatoes, onions, tomatoes and canned beef had been thrown away at Santiago, being spoiled. Maj. Gallagher said there was a shortage of lighters, but he was not able to say why this was true.

Col. Denby pressed for information as to the shortage of coffee and sugar. Maj. Gallagher stated that there were probably two days when the men were without these articles. A storm was the cause of this deficiency, but if there had been a sufficiency of lighters this deficiency would not have occurred. The major said there was not, to his knowledge, a shortage in any other article of food during the campaign. Col. Denby told him there was complaint of a deficiency covering a month's time, but Gallagher said he knew nothing of it.

OREGON AND IOWA.

Kautz Says They are not Bound for Manila.

[A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.]
CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—The Chronicle says: "Contrary to public belief, the battleships Oregon and Iowa, recently ordered to sail from New York to Honolulu are not destined to reinforce Dewey's fleet, says Commodore Albert Kautz, the newly-appointed commander of the Pacific squadron, to succeed Admiral Miller."

"Commodore Kautz is in this city on his way to the Pacific Coast. There is, he says, little likelihood that the vessels would go to Oriental waters this year. He declared they would remain part of the Pacific squadron. One or two will probably be maintained permanently in Hawaiian waters, ready to sail at an instant's notice for the Philippines, but the commodore is of the opinion that no further reinforcements will be necessary."

WAS NOT HEFFERMAN.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

LEXINGTON (Ky.), Oct. 10.—Private Edward Nygram, a young Swede belonging to Co. B, Twelfth New York, was shot and killed about midnight by the provost guard while running away to evade arrest. His body was first identified by a pass in his pocket, as Private Heffernan, of the same company and regiment, but Heffernan answered roll call and an inquiry developed that he had loaned an expired pass to Nygram.

Private Bailey of the Third Engineers, was also shot by the provost guard and is in a critical condition. Private Doocey, reported to have been killed, died of typhoid fever in the hospital Sunday night.

PRIVATE PARRETT.

Charges Don't Lie, but Tabor Must Go.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—The board of inquiry appointed to investigate the charges against Contract Surgeon Tabor, growing out of the death at Camp Wyckoff of Private Hugh Parrett of the Eighth Infantry, has submitted its report to Secretary Alger. The board presents simply the testimony taken in the course of inquiry, making no recommendations.

The charges against Dr. Tabor were, in brief, that he had induced Parrett to prescribe for Private Parrett, and that the soldier's death was due to negligence or incompetency of the surgeon. The evidence taken by the board shows that Dr. Tabor did prescribe for Parrett, and that he attended him twice on the day of his death. Not fifteen minutes before he had taken in the surf only a short time before.

The report of the board of inquiry was referred to Judge-Advocate Leiber, and by him returned to the secretary of War with the opinion that the charges against Dr. Tabor would not lie under the testimony. The matter was then referred to Surgeon-General Sternberg, who decided that, under the circumstances, the best course to pursue would be to relieve Dr. Tabor from duty by cancelling his contract as army surgeon. The necessary steps to this end will be taken at once.

NOTHER SEVENTH REGIMENT.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Orders were received at Camp Wyckoff today for the Seventh Infantry, the only regiment there, to depart from camp. The regiment has been assigned by the War Department to the Department of the Lakes, and will do garrison duty at Fort Wayne and Fort Brady, Mich. The command will probably get away within the next day or two. Five hundred mules, 200 horses and 175 army wagons are to be sent to the government corral near Washington.

BRECKINRIDGE TO RETIRE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Maj.-Gen. J. C. Breckinridge has been included in the list of major-generals to be mustered out, and will return to his home as inspector-general with the rank of brigadier-general.

THE FIRST MISSOURI.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 10.—The First Missouri Volunteer Infantry, members of which have been on furlough for the past month, is again encamped at Jefferson Barracks to be mustered out. During the war the regiment, which is made up entirely of St. Louis men, was at Chickamauga Park, where it gained an enviable record.

FOR PORTO RICO.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEWPORT (R. I.), Oct. 10.—The United States transport Manitoba, with the Forty-seventh New York Regiment on board, sailed at 4 p.m. for Porto Rico.

"DOES NOT ANSWER."

THAT'S WHAT A COMMISSIONER SAYS OF ALGER'S ANSWER.

No Attempt Apparently Made to Explain Causes for Soldiers' Sufferings—After Reading Reports the Commission Will Visit the Camps and New York.

[A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.]
NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—A dispatch to the Herald from Washington says Secretary Alger has sent an answer to the War Investigating Commission, which, in the words of one of the commissioners, "Does not answer."

"In the first place," said this commissioner, "we asked the commission to select the camp sites. The only answer vouchsafed is that Gen. Lee selected the camp at Jacksonville. I do not think any other camp is mentioned. But this omission will, no doubt, be remedied in the supplemental report for which we will call on the Secretary."

Secretary Alger's report includes about 3000 words, and in addition to the Jacksonville camp matter, covers only these points: The selection of Tampa as a point of embarkation; Rear-Admiral Sampson's dispatch the cause of the hastening of troops to Santiago; the cause of the subsequent delay of the troops. Discussion of these topics exhausts the report. No attempt seems to have been made to explain the causes of the hardships suffered by the soldiers in Tampa. The matter is brushed aside with apparent contempt in the reply that Tampa was considered a good location, and the most convenient point of embarkation. Secretary Alger will be asked for a fuller answer.

The programme of the commission for this week is to have no witnesses, except those who may be caught peeping through Washington. The time will be spent in reading the voluminous report of the adjutant-general, then the report of Surgeon-General Sternberg, and then the reports of other heads of departments.

Members of the commission expect to leave for Tampa on Monday. They may go first to Camp Meade before it breaks up. They will go to Jacksonville, where Col. Eryan will be one of the important witnesses. The tour of the camps, it is thought, will consume about two weeks. The commission will return to Washington and later go to New York City. In New York two prominent witnesses will be called—Col. Theodore Roosevelt and R. B. Roosevelt. The latter made grave charges against the administration of Commissary-General Egan, and will be asked to substantiate them. After the examination in New York, the commission will return to Washington before going to Santiago, which it is thought will be among the last things done by the commission.

Mrs. Rachel Macaulay, widow of Barne Macaulay, and secretary of the ex-Protestant Women's League, died at her home in New York City. Mrs. Macaulay was born in 1845 in Louisville, Ky.

PROBLEMS WHICH WERE.

TIME AND THE NEW STATESMEN ARE SOLVING THEM.

Cuba, Hawaii and the Nicaragua Canal are not the Rubicuns They Once Were—Telling Speech by Chauncey M. Depew.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—The annual Chicago day celebration of the Hamilton Club was held today in the Auditorium Theater. Chauncey M. Depew, as guest of the club, was the principal speaker, and the great hall was packed to sufficiency long before the hour set for his appearance. Just previous to the introduction by President Cody of Judge Peter S. Grosscup, who spoke briefly, battle songs and the national anthem were given by a chorus of 200 voices, assisted by the United States Marine Band and the Auditorium organ. At the conclusion of Judge Grosscup's speech, Mr. Depew was introduced amid wild applause.

A TELLING SPEECH.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—Mr. Depew said in part:

"For over fifty years American statesmen grappled with, but failed to solve, the problems of Cuba, Hawaii and a canal through the Nicaragua isthmus. Hawaii seemed the real for the protection of our Pacific Coast, and Cuba, by its frightful misgovernment under Spanish rule, enlisted our sympathy and our indignation. The irreconcilable divisions in Democratic Cabinets made action on the part of the government, either for the acquisition of Hawaii or for peace and humanity in Cuba, absolutely impossible. The responsibility of governing these islands was crumpled in the great, but the policy of governing them by recognizing the manhood of their people has never been tried. The inhabitants of these islands will respond to the effort of a great, generous and free people to teach them and help them to govern themselves."

"In the mean time, the increasing productiveness and the varying industries which will be introduced, make these distant possessions a source of wealth and sources of revenue. Not only that, but they will be the growing markets for our goods. Every one who is familiar with the Pacific Coast appreciates the limitations which are placed upon its opportunities by its distance from the markets and difficulties of transportation. The mountains of Oregon and Washington are full of coal and iron, but they cannot compete with the coal and iron of the Rocky Mountains. California raises 20,000,000 bushels of wheat a year, but its market is too distant for profit. We become masters of the Philippines and have the harbor of our men-of-war, and our merchant vessels at Manila will be in striking distance of China, at the moment when that empire is crumbling to pieces. The open market of Japan, and the opening of China will absorb not only all the wheat now grown upon the Pacific Coast, but all it can possibly produce. Its markets will be so great for our steel rails, our machinery and electrical appliances, and our agricultural implements, that with a merchant marine on the Pacific, Oregon, Washington and California will, in a few years, be among the richest and most productive States of the Union. There is, in the trade opening, a new field of labor and new opportunities for capital. The congestion of our markets will be relieved, causes of panics will be diminished, the fierce competition among ourselves will be lessened, the farmers of the West and the West and of the Northwest will find themselves better able to compete in the markets of Europe, with the Argentinians, Russians, Egyptians and Indians. The surplus of the Pacific Coast will go to the Orient, instead of to Liverpool."

"Civilization and Christianity and orderly liberty following the flag, will bestow inestimable benefits upon distant semi-barbarous and alien races. There will be to our own people reciprocal benefits which come from a thousand millions, instead of seventy millions of people, wanting the products of our soil, the results of our agriculture, the output of our mines, the surplus of our mills, our factories and our furnaces."

CULLOM DEFENDS EXPANSION.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—The celebration concluded this evening with a banquet at the Auditorium Hotel, at which covers for 500 were laid. Senator Shelby M. Cullom responded to the toast, "Hawaii, United States of America." Though Mr. Cullom did not discuss the kind of legislation which the Hawaiian commission, of which he is a member, will recommend to Congress, he defended the policy of territorial expansion, and in this connection gave significant praise to the colonial system of Great Britain.

Colored Whirlwind Fell Asleep.

ROCHESTER (N. Y.), Oct. 11.—"Kid" Goulette hooked his right to Joe Hopkins' jaw bone and to the middle of the fourth round, what was to have been a twenty-five-round bout, and put the colored whirlwind to sleep. The knockout, the first ever administered to Hopkins in his career of eight years in the ring, was delivered before a wildly enthusiastic audience of 1000 people at the athletic club.

Malaria Cured

All Medicines Failed Except Hood's Sarsaparilla

Improved with the First Dose—Now Entirely Well.

Malaria is caused by bad air, bad water, bad drainage, which make bad blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures malaria by purifying the blood. Read this interesting statement:

"I was confined to my bed with malaria. I could not take strong medicines, owing to my condition, and everything I took failed to help me. At last I decided to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. After taking it a short time the malaria was entirely gone and I have never had it since. I began to improve with the very first dose of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I am now strong and well." Mrs. A. M. THE TRANSYLVANIA.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

LEXINGTON (Ky.), Oct. 10.—After two more days of delay on account of rain, the meeting of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association resumed at noon today with the 2:08 class, two heats of which had been trotted Thursday, William Penn having won the first and Rima, the favorite, the second. Nine horses scored for the word in the Transylvania. The fifth and deciding heat was trotted just as dusk was coming on. Grattan Boy, Eagle Flanagan and Pilatus alternated in the heat, until the last quarter was reached, when John Nolan joined the issue with them, and in a driving finish, every horse under the whip, the four horses finished heads apart, with John Nolan a winner of the fastest five-heat race on record. It was the greatest race ever trotted for the Transylvania, John Nolan winning the third heat by a length, the fourth by a neck, and the fifth by a head, all of which were won in a desperate drive. He had finished seventh in both the first and second heats. Results:

The 2:08-class trotting, purse $2000: Pilot Boy won third, fourth and fifth heats; time 2:09½, 2:09½, 2:10½. William Penn won the first seat in 2:13½. Capt. Jack, Tommy Britton, Kentucky Union, Dan Cupid, Klamath, Humboldt Maid and Fred B. also started.

The 2:13-class pacing, purse $2000: The Bishop won third, fourth and fifth heats; time 2:09½, 2:11½, 2:12. Hal B. won first and second heats; time 2:10½, 2:10. Fair View, Blaze Boy, Pinta, Byzantine, Bell Boy, Bernice, Roan Dick, Jim Pugh and Light Star also started.

The Transylvania, for trotters of the 2:13 class, purse $600: John Nolan won third, fourth and fifth heats; time 2:08½, 2:09½, 2:09½. Eagle Flanagan won first heat in 2:07½. Grattan Boy won second heat in the final Bingen, Diono, Caracalla, Bello J. and Cut Glass also started.

The 2:27-class trotting, $1000 (unhitched): Maggie Lass won first heat in 2:16½. Bessie Owens won second heat in 2:13½. Valois, Chestnut King, Baron Wood, Sampson, Barometer, Red Tape, Black Robert, Ambers, Guy Baron, Capstone, Judge Tenby and Bonacita also started.

Against a World's Record.

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—The racing mare Imp, on October 5 will be sent against the world's record of 1:38½ on a circular track, made by Libertine at Harlem four years ago. The Harlem Jockey Club has offered a purse and a plate if Imp succeeds in lowering the record. Four speedy horses will set a pace for Imp, who will be ridden by Jockey Reif.

Expert bicyclists have already succeeded in riding a single wheel, or unicycle, for short distances. In years to come the unicycle may become as common a mode of locomotion as the bicycle. Only a few years ago people would have laughed at the idea that all the world would shortly be awheel. It is not in mechanics alone that the world is making rapid progress. Not many years ago all physicians pronounced consumption an incurable disease. To-day a large proportion of people recognize that it is a distinctly curable disease. Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures 98 per cent of all cases of consumption. It stood the test for thirty years. Thousands of people who were given up by their doctors, and had lost all hope owe their lives to this marvelous remedy. It acts directly on the lungs, driving out all impurities and disease germs. It restores the appetite, corrects all disorders of the digestion, strengthens the weak stomach, makes the assimilation of the life-giving elements of the food perfect, invigorates the liver, purifies the blood and tones the nerves. It is the great blood-maker and flesh-builder. It does not make flabby flesh like cod liver oil, but the firm, muscular tissue of absolute health. An honest dealer will not offer you an inferior substitute for the sake of a little added profit.

Miss Mary Whitman, of East Dickinson, Franklin Co., N. Y., writes: "For nearly ten months I have had a bad cough, and instead of getting better, it grew worse. I was said to have consumption. I tried Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and when the second bottle was empty I had no cough and was cured."

Didn't Get The "YOB."

How a Faithless Employment Agent Was Brought to Book.

Designing employment agents would do well to steer clear of Frank Lauteren when they are looking for victims, for Lauteren has proved himself capable of getting his money back or bringing his despotic justice.

Lauteren is a husky laborer with a brogue that would indicate that he is a recent arrival from Lauterbach, or some neighboring province in the German fatherland, but he is not so green as he looks. About a week ago Lauteren came in from the country in quest of work. He went to the free employment bureau, where he met E. Nelson, whose complexion and accent give the impression that he hails from the land of Yon Yonson, or some other Scandinavian country. Nelson informed Lauteren that he knew where he could get a "yob" for both of them. Nelson's promises were so plausible that Lauteren placed confidence in them, and on the strength of them "loaned" Nelson $4.

But the promised "yob" failed to materialize. After chasing around in search of several imaginary places where Nelson told him he had engaged work for him, Lauteren made up his mind that he was being swindled. The last wild-goose chase Nelson induced him to engage in was on Sunday, when poor Lauteren almost trudged his legs off looking for a one-legged man who was supposed to run a brick yard, where Lauteren would surely find work, for Nelson declared he had it all fixed up. Lauteren visited all the brick yards in the city and its suburbs, but could find no one-legged man who knew Nelson or had promised him work.

Resolved to stand no more such hoodwinking, Lauteren started in search of Nelson instead of work, yesterday morning, with the felt determination of getting his money back or handing him over to the officers of justice. Lauteren met Nelson on Central avenue near the electric power house, and proceeded to carry his determination into effect. Seizing the Scandinavian by the neck, he told him to yield up $2, and as Nelson could not or would not produce the other $2 which he owed the German Lauteren held onto him and began to call for a policeman.

William Wells, a colored special policeman, heard the outcry as he was passing by on an electric car, and got off to investigate. Lauteren explained the situation, and Nelson said he had a friend in a lumber yard near by who would loan him the money if Lauteren would let him go. The officer accompanied the men to the lumber yard in question, but Nelson's friend with the money was not there. As they were still quarreling and wrangling over the matter in a boisterous manner, Wells called the patrol wagon and sent both of them to the Police Station, where they were booked for disturbing the peace.

When the case was called in the Police Court, Nelson pleaded guilty, a plea of not guilty was entered for Lauteren, who related the history of the difficulty in a manner that convinced the court that he was telling the truth. Lauteren was accordingly acquitted, and Nelson was fined $10, with the usual alternative. He paid his fine and was released.

1st ANNUAL SALE OF FALL UNDERWARE

DON'T WORRY.

Broadway Department Store
BROADWAY, CORNER OF FOURTH

Tuesday Morning, 11 Oct.

No One Ever Did Anything Like This Before.

They all laugh at us for doing it—say it's unnecessary and foolish to cut prices right on the threshold of the season. But we've planned for the event—bought specially for it—prepared a surplus for just such an outlet. You'll notice that

The Cuts Are Deep, But Quick—for two days only

(Today and Tomorrow.)

Every garment is underpriced—
Every garment is just what you need—
They are garments you are willing to pay more for, and must if you go elsewhere—
This is good news for big families—the bigger the families the more appreciative will the news be.

Underwear for Everybody--The Price of Every Garment is Cut But for Today and Tomorrow Only.

Battle-Ax Plug is a strong proposition: —the strongest ever known to tobacco-chewers. It is not "cheap" tobacco because it is sold at a low price.

It is the very best piece of chewing tobacco ever sold at any price, and it is possible and profitable to sell a large piece of this high-grade tobacco at so low a price because there is five times more of it sold than any other kind in the world.

Remember the name when you buy again.

One Value.

The best Dental Work is the only quality that gives value for the money at any price. And in dental work there is only one value—the kind the best work gives. No "good enough" work will do; no "pretty fair" work is worth having; nothing but the best work will stand the test of time and give lasting satisfaction. I put faith in the best work in my practice—and charge only a fair part of what such work is really worth.

THE TIMES

Weekly Circulation Statement.
STATE OF CALIFORNIA, COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES, S.S.:
I, HARRY CHANDLER, general manager of the Times-Mirror Company, being duly sworn, depose and say that the daily bona-fide edition of the Times-Mirror for the week ended October 8, 1898, was as follows:

Monday	51,820
Tuesday	52,510
Wednesday	52,510
Thursday	52,510
Friday	52,510
Saturday	52,510
Total for the week	340,470

Daily average for the week: 50,078.
(Signed) HARRY CHANDLER.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 8th day of October, 1898.
THOMAS L. CHAPIN,
Notary Public in and for the County of Los Angeles, State of California.

NOTE.—THE TIMES is a seven-day paper. The above aggregate of 340,470 copies, issued by us during the seven days of the week, would, if apportioned on the basis of a six-day evening issue, give a daily average circulation for each week of 27,778 copies.

THE TIMES is the only Los Angeles paper which has been published weekly for the past several years. Advertisers have the right to know the NET CIRCULATION of the medium which they use for their business, and the TIMES does this correctly, from time to time; and it furthermore guarantees that the circulation of THE TIMES regularly exceeds the combined circulation of all other Los Angeles daily newspapers.

A FAT BOY'S FLIGHT.

He Disturbed the Peace and Got Into Jail.

Oliver Thompson, a boy fair, fat and 14 years of age, was arraigned before Justice Owens yesterday for disturbing the peace.

"Guilty or not guilty?" Inquired the court after the reading of the complaint.

"Guilty, but he's just as guilty as I am," he began it, placed the boy with tears as big as biscuits in his voice.

The complainant against young Thompson is Henry Fisher, a junk dealer, residing at No. 823 East First street. Fisher had hired the lad to haul away some manure for him.

Fisher alleged that the boy abused the team, and refused to pay him the 50 cents he was to have for the job. He finally compromised by paying him 25 cents.

This made young Thompson angry, and he threatened to get his big brother to thrash Fisher. He also promised to get even for the 25 cents held out on him, by inflicting punishment on Fisher's horse.

The disturbance between Fisher and the boy took place Saturday. On Sunday, when Fisher visited his stable he found an ugly gash in the side of the shoulders of the horse. He suspected young Thompson, and swore out a complaint against him for disturbing the peace.

Hearing of the evidence was deferred by Justice Owens till 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Slot-machine Telephone Illegal. CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—In an opinion rendered to the Judiciary Committee of the City Council today, Corporation Counsel Thornton holds that the slot-machine telephone, as used by the Chicago Telephone company, is illegal.

Counsel Thornton contends that the company has no right to charge any extra to an outsider for the use of the telephone, and that the company is already being paid by the party renting the telephone, and leaves it to the option of the latter whether he shall make an extra charge or not.

EATON FOR MAYOR.

UNANIMOUSLY NOMINATED AMID GREAT ENTHUSIASM.

Republican City Convention Commended Its Labor—Rebuke to Disreputable Politicians.

JOHN DRAIN RENOMINATED.

LOUIS VETTER, THE SECOND WARD NOMINEE, FOR COUNCILMAN.

William J. Variel Honored With the Chairmanship of the Convention.

Declaration for Municipal Ownership of Water.

Fred Eaton was nominated for Mayor by acclamation in the Republican City Convention last evening. Seldom is such a storm of enthusiasm witnessed in a political gathering as burst loose when his name was presented. The delegates cheered and shouted, hats and canes were waved wildly and finally the whole convention rose as one man and joined in three tremendous cheers for the nominee. It was, of course, a foregone conclusion before the convention met that Eaton would be at the head of the municipal campaign, but his most sanguine friends did not anticipate such an ovation as he received. It was a notable tribute to the popularity and worth of the next Mayor of Los Angeles.

John Drain was renominated for Mayor Superintendent by a sweeping majority, receiving the vote of more than two-thirds of the convention. The result was greeted with prolonged applause from the galleries and galleries as well as from the delegates. No other nominations were made yesterday, but a ticket will probably be completed today.

The platform adopted by the convention takes a decided stand for municipal ownership of a complete and adequate sewerage system. The adoption of a new city charter is advocated.

A strong blow was struck for the cause of decent government by the unanimous decision of the convention that the notorious John Griffin should not be permitted to sit as a delegate. In fact, so much crookedness was discovered in the methods employed on both sides at the primary in Griffin's precinct that both the regular and the contesting delegations were thrown out.

W. J. VARIEL, CHAIRMAN.

The hour set for the convention to open was 10 o'clock, but it was nearly 11 when Fred Eaton, the chairman of the City Central Committee, called the delegates to order. William E. Ludlow, secretary of the committee, called the roll and Mr. Eaton then called for nominations for chairman.

Frank Dominguez took the platform and nominated William J. Variel of the Ninth Ward. The nomination was received with hearty applause, and it was gracefully seconded by C. D. Wilbur of the Fourth Ward, who had been elected president of the convention, but who withdrew from the contest in the interest of harmony. Mr. Variel was elected by acclamation. He addressed the convention briefly, expressing his sense of the honor conferred upon him and commenting happily upon the bright prospects of Republican victory in the State, county and city campaigns. The mention of the names of Henry T. Gage, Jacob Neff and E. J. Waters elicited hearty applause.

The business of completing the temporary organization was then taken up. Dr. Brown, D. C. DeGarmo, O. W. Dunham, W. Fairbanks and E. W. Hopkins were nominated for secretaries. A motion was made to select one of their number as assistant secretary, the other five to act as assistants.

A discussion was excited by a motion authorizing the chairman to appoint the usual committees on Resolutions, Order of Business and Credentials, each committee to consist of one member from each ward. C. D. Wilbur offered an amendment increasing the Committee on Credentials to seventeen members, and when the other two committees to fifteen each. The amendment was lost, however, and the original motion prevailed. A recess was then taken until 1:30 in order to allow the chairman to make up the committees.

When the delegates reconvened in the afternoon, Chairman Variel announced that the same system of secret balloting would be employed that proved so satisfactory in the county convention. He stated that no smoking would be permitted on the floor of the convention.

The secretary then read the names of delegates who had been accepted by the chairman on the committees, as follows:

Committee on Resolutions and Platform: First Ward, E. W. Tyler; Second Ward, B. F. Field; Third Ward, H. S. Stephens; Fourth Ward, Byron L. Oliver; Fifth Ward, C. D. Phillips; Sixth Ward, J. C. Croft; Seventh Ward, C. J. Kubach; Eighth Ward, Carl Kurtz; Ninth Ward, L. O. Powers.

Committee on Permanent Organization and Order of Business—First Ward, George Hollis; Second Ward, C. E. Donatoni; Third Ward, Charles M. Elberson; Fourth Ward, W. M. Johnson; Fifth Ward, Phil Kitchner; Sixth Ward, Dr. W. E. Morrison; Seventh Ward, Dr. W. E. Morrison; Eighth Ward, John A. Kingsley; Ninth Ward, M. C. Neuner.

The personnel of the committees proved to be somewhat unsatisfactory to two or three of the wards. D. J. Cooper, chairman of the Seventh Ward delegation, rose and said that his delegation desired to have James Vena on the Credentials Committee in place of E. L. Grubb, and Evan Lewis on the Committee on Platform in place of C. J. Kubach, who could not be present.

W. Long of the Third Ward stated that his delegation desired to substitute E. A. Forrester in place of H. S. Stephens, who could not attend.

Other changes were called for, but the suggestions were ruled out of order, as the chair had been vested with authority to make such changes in the view of the absence, however, of C. J. Kubach and H. S. Stephens. E. A. Forrester and Evan Lewis were respectively elected to the places of Stephens and Grubb.

A resolution that nominations be made in the order in which the several offices are named in the city charter was referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

In order to allow the committees to prepare their reports the convention then took another recess until 7:30 p.m.

THE EVENING SESSION.

Reports of Committees—Eaton and Drain Nominated.

The delegates got into their seats for the evening session about 7:45 o'clock, and the hum of voices ceased.

Chairman Variel asked if the Committee on Credentials was ready to report, and the reply from the chairman of the committee was in the affirmative.

The Committee on Permanent Organization and Order of Business also reported ready. The Committee on Resolutions and Platform was still in executive meeting.

When the committee was called to order at 8 o'clock, all the delegates were present, and the galleries were crowded, as was also the platform, where numerous ladies and gentlemen were seated.

Dr. Le Moyne Wills, chairman of the Committee on Credentials, reported in substance, as follows:

Contests were filed in three precincts, and an error occurred in the number of delegates returned as selected in one precinct. The contested cases were examined and resulted as follows:

Wilson was seated in the Eighteenth Precinct, despite the contest of C. B. Story, who claimed Wilson was a non-resident and resided in the city of Los Angeles. The attempt to unseat the whole Eighteenth Precinct delegation was not sustained, the charges being not proven.

In the Fifty-sixth Precinct three delegates were elected by a sweeping majority. The contested cases were examined and resulted as follows:

THE NEW CHARTER.
Between now and the time when the people of Los Angeles will be called upon to adopt or reject the new charter which has been prepared by the Board of Freeholders, there will be time to discuss its more important provisions. It is to be published in full, as required by law, and all citizens will thus be enabled to study its provisions and to make up their minds, prior to the election, whether they will vote for or against it.

The new charter is too voluminous to be reviewed in its entirety within the limits of a single article. A somewhat hasty inspection of advance sheets furnished by the Board of Freeholders, shows that it has been prepared with more than usual care. It is written in concise and correct English—written in a style which cannot be said of the instrument which at present serves the city as its organic law. Intelligent, conscientious, and painstaking work has evidently been bestowed upon the proposed charter—and this speaks for the careful consideration of the individual voter.

One of the undoubted merits of the proposed charter lies in the fact that, while enlarging the powers of the Mayor, it places upon that officer a heavier burden of responsibility than he is required to bear under the present régime. Various offices which are now elective, are made appointive, and the municipal head of the city is held responsible to the people for the proper and faithful discharge of the duties pertaining to these appointive offices. This plan is in accordance with the system of reform advocated by some of the leading students of municipal government, which has been put into actual operation in many eastern and European cities, with highly satisfactory results. In effect, it removes some of the executive officers of the city from the arena of local politics, and consequently tends directly to weaken the influence of what is known as the political "pull," which influence is almost invariably exerted for evil and not for good. The officers whom the Mayor is required to appoint are these: City Attorney, Superintendent of Streets, City Engineer, Sealer of Weights and Measures, Superintendent of Buildings, Board of Park Commissioners, Board of Library Trustees, Board of Health, Board of Fire Commissioners, Board of Police Commissioners, Board of Civil Service Commissioners, and, by and with the consent of the Council, two members of the Board of Education. Confirmation by the Council, it will be noted, is required only in the case of the two members of the Board of Education.

It is required that the Mayor shall have been an elector of the city for at least five years preceding the election, and his term of office is to be five years. He is to observe, vigilantly, the conduct of all public officers, and to take note of the fidelity or lack of fidelity with which they discharge their duties. The books, records, and official papers of the city, of every description, are to be open to the Mayor's inspection at all times. Any willful neglect of duty or official misconduct which he may discover, or which may be reported to him, is to be laid before the Council, City Attorney, or District Attorney, and the person in default is to be proceeded against in the courts.

The Mayor is especially charged with the task of seeing that the laws of the State and the ordinances of the city are enforced within his jurisdiction. The official books and records of every officer, department and board of the city are to be examined by an expert at least once in every year, and any officer refusing, delaying or impeding such examination is to be suspended from office by the Mayor or removed for malfeasance. In brief, the Mayor is required to exercise general supervision over all the departments and public institutions of the city, and to see that they are economically, lawfully, and honestly conducted. He is charged with the preservation of the public peace, and is clothed with ample power to suppress riots. The cash in the city treasury is to be counted by the Mayor and the Finance Committee of the Council once every three months, and he is to see that it corresponds with the books of the Treasurer, and of the Auditor. He is to see also that all contracts and agreements with the city are faithfully kept, and is required to proceed against all persons or corporations found to be

A SECRETARY OF COMMERCE.
There is talk of adding two new members to the Cabinet, namely, a Secretary for the Colonies, and a Secretary of Commerce.
It is high time that the United States should have a department of commerce. Such departments are found in countries where the mercantile business transacted does not begin to compare in volume with that of the United States. The New York Commercial shows that the commerce of the United States, with foreign nations alone, reaches well toward $2,000,000,000 in value. That this can be greatly increased, particularly in the matter of exports, and to a large extent in the import of raw materials for manufacturing purposes, admits of no question.

A Secretary of Commerce, if active and enterprising, could be of immense value to this country, by making a thorough investigation of foreign markets for American products. In this branch of activity alone, such a department would pay for itself, several times over, in the course of the year.

The Board of Supervisors yesterday awarded the printing of the Supplemental Register of this county, requiring only 750 copies to be printed. Section 1115 of the Political Code (last paragraph), says there shall be printed ten copies and fifty additional copies for every 1000 voters at the last election. Charles W. Palm Company put in a bid for 1660 copies, in accordance with this requirement of the code. Mr. Palm claims that he is entitled to the contract, on the ground that his was the only bid which conformed to the law. Today he will apply for a mandamus to compel the board to award him the contract. The outcome of the case will be watched with general interest.

A dispatch from Madrid states that the papers are applauding Sagasta for urging, at the last Cabinet council, the necessity of Spain taking an interest in the affairs of the Far East, and of Morocco. The Spanish are certainly a hopeful people. The average man would suppose that, just now, the Spanish have enough to do to look after their own welfare, without taking an active interest in those of any other country, but then, there are probably a large number of people in Spain who are not yet aware that their nation has been whipped by the United States.

Among the powers delegated to the corporation of Los Angeles by the new charter is the power to designate the height of partition fences, and to regulate the keeping of poultry. It is well that these provisions are to be imbedded in the original law; for probably three-fourths of all the petty squabbles between the residents of cities arises either directly or indirectly from the depredations of chickens and the building of partition fences.

Says the San Francisco Call: "THE LOS ANGELES TIMES expresses the laudable hope that in ten years that city will be as large as San Francisco—meaning, of course, the San Francisco of today. Even THE TIMES knows too much to be yearning after the unattainable." The Call is quite mistaken. THE TIMES' hope is that Los Angeles, in ten years from now, will be as large as San Francisco now, and will be as large as San Francisco then. That is the mark we are aiming at with our Mausers, and if we do not hit the target we will come so near it that another five years firing will surely give the southern metropolis the lead. You just watch this town grow!

It looks from this distance as if some one came very near being guilty of manslaughter of a high degree at Manzanillo. Col. Ray seems to have been ready to carry out the orders he had received, and would have attacked perhaps 1200 men, better armed than his own, with but 300, had not the countermarching order reached him just as it did. Some one blundered, or the latter order would have reached him sooner.

And now our great and good friend, Joe Chamberlain, of England, has joined in the swelling chorus "Keep dem Philippines, McKinley." It's all right, Joseph. It looks more and more as though we should be obliged to keep them whether we want to or not. Thanks for the advice, and the friendly spirit in which it was given, just the same.

There is evidently a clear case for the criminal courts in connection with the Kansas State Insane Asylum at Topeka. Either Dr. C. H. Wetmore, who has resigned the position of superintendent of the institution, is guilty of criminal libel, or several officials and employees should be sent to the penitentiary.

Judge Augustus Van Wyck is an Episcopalian, and may be a good man, but the fact that he is a protégé of Boss Croker makes the hypothesis doubtful. It is harder for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a man to be a Christian and serve a New York boss, or even a California boss.

While the removal of telegraph, telephone and electric light poles is going on we ought to go a step farther and insist that the sawlogs used as poles by the trolley lines be replaced by small and neat iron supports for the cross wires. Then this would be the city beautiful, sure enough.

POLITICS.

The following letter sufficiently shows the strained relations existing at present in the fusion camp:

To the members of the People's party City Central Committee of Los Angeles: In accordance with your instructions I appointed a Committee on Conference. Said committee has had many meetings with the Democratic and Silver Republican representatives and after many conferences, reports that they have found the representatives of the Silver Republicans fair and just; while the demands of the Democratic representatives were so exorbitant as to render useless all further negotiations.

"I therefore call up the members of the City Central Committee to meet at the Silver Republican Club, No. 312 West Second street, Tuesday evening, October 11, at 8 o'clock, to determine what course shall be adopted for the future."

"Owing to the general importance of this matter and its bearing upon the success of the State and county tickets, the presence of all members of the party is invited. MILTON CARLSON, Chairman."

"W. S. Montgomery, secretary."

A false report was circulated yesterday that C. C. Davis would not accept a nomination for the Board of Education. Mr. Davis will be nominated for the voters of the Fourth Ward fully appreciate the valuable services he has rendered.

An effort is being made to out forward Fred Stein for the nomination for school trustee from the Sixth Ward. Stein was one of the solid six on the Grubbs board, and his record is not such as to commend him to those voters who desire to see the affairs of the school board properly administered. It is said that Spurgeon V. Riley is working in Stein's interest.

The next meeting of the Second Ward Republican Club, instead of being postponed from last evening until this evening, is postponed to next Tuesday, October 18, at which time, unless ordered otherwise by the State Executive Committee, Senator Bulla will address the club.

The Playhouses

ORPHEUM. There was a jam at this popular house last night, and quite a many people were turned away at the door as found admission possible. The reason is not far to seek. The Orpheum management gives a light, clean, diverting show, and well deserves all the good things in the way of patronage that comes that way.

Popular interest was centered last evening in Edwin Milton Royle's new comedy-drama, "Miss Wicket of Wall Street"—this interest having been excited by the powerful success of the clever farce, "Capt. Impudence," in which the Royles and their little company appeared last week. "Miss Wicket of Wall Street" is by far more dramatic and comic, and one would say rather too much so ever to become popular as an attraction for the vaudeville stage. There is a clean-cut bit of story—a story of a woman Wall-street operator—in the new play, but that action which makes a sketch or turn go on the variety boards is not rapid enough for the lovers of vaudeville tobacco sauce. Mrs. Royle's Miss Wicket is a charming play, and it is a strong, vivid and full of those fine touches of art for which this play is famous, but the comedy element—fetching as is Miss Dupont, the pretty tough cub of an office boy, and excellent as is the broken English of Mr. Royle's Count von Streizki—will not hold the people who go to see comedy laid on with broad swift splashes of color. The skit was splendidly played, and Mr. Royle's German count was a work of art, but as compared with "Capt. Impudence," "Miss Wicket of Wall Street" is not in the running. The laughs in it are mere ripples, and are far apart, and what is known as "ginger" comes up missing.

Bessie Bonehill, garbed in the costume of a courtesan, came on to meet her usual generous reception, and did three or four new character songs, one presented last week, and her neat and jaunty sailor's bonnet, with her audience setting up Oliver Twist's cry of "More." Miss Bonehill's charms are such as to insure her lasting favor in any land, and before any people.

Hugh Emmett opens the bill with a ventriloquist performance through a quartette of dummies—one of them "in the car," which is a letter and no worse than other of this class of performances that have been seen here. Miss Franko, the violinist, plays several numbers with consummate skill. The intermezzo from "Cavalleria Rusticana" was an exquisite performance.

The Anglo-American quartette appeared in the garb of soldiers in camp about a campfire, and their singing is as beautiful as the costuming of the singers, and the large singing was appealing and picturesque. Their songs all have a soldierly flavor, and all are splendidly rendered. The Orpheum has a room housed four male singers with sweeter voices.

The two Paolis and their acrobatic duo, who play a novel and novel game, there is a good deal of horse play which is, fortunately, not offensive. They are deft acrobats, and the dog and cat act is a wonder. Ray Burton, the sharpshooter and wire-walker, and Cazean, the magician, in his bewitching parlor feats with coins and cards, completes a bill which goes all the week.

THE BURBANK. "The Leading Man," Mrs. Romualdo Pacheco's latest comedy, was given its initial performance last night. The play is entirely new, and its presentation on any stage was made in San Francisco about three weeks ago, when it was chorused by the opening of the new Comedy Theater. Mrs. Pacheco brought her own company of players across the continent from New York, and she had the honor to produce the play in her native city before taking it elsewhere. The seal of San Francisco's approval was evidently set on it, for it was the leading attraction of the new Comedy Theater. Judging by its reception last night at the Burbank, Los Angeles shares the same high regard and plauds were generously bestowed upon many of the scenes, and the actors were given several curtain calls.

The play itself has all the earmarks of Mrs. Pacheco's style. The plot is involved without being elaborate, and the action is almost redundant. Something happens every minute while the curtain is up, and it is always something that serves to tighten the tangle of the situation. The play is a comedy, and the complications arise from the vanity of a stage-struck young woman, who has been a play, and who asks a prominent actor to call upon her, in order that she may submit it to him. As her husband is strongly prejudiced against her, his sudden refusal to do so, creates some confusion. In her terror, the fair playwright presents the actor as her cousin from California. He promptly accepts the part, but is somewhat disconcerted by the unexpected appearance of the real cousin. By this time matters are getting lively, and the play is well along until the end, when the tangle is unraveled by a device that does credit to Mrs. Pacheco's ingenuity.

The criticism has been given to comedy based upon a physical infirmity, but surely stuttering is an infirmity of the mind, and the compelling readiness to the requirements of farcical comedy. In this case, it plays a very important part. Stuttering and deafness are the marked characteristics of the cousin from California, and, in taking his character, the actor, of course, is obliged to assume them. When the genuine cousin shows up, the stuttering duet is at times very funny.

The part of Frederick Maitland, the leading man, is played by Brigham Rowe, who is a really good actor, and in other ways to comport himself as a genuine matinee hero should. George S. Robert is the California cousin, and his stutter is a linguistic peculiarity, both fearfully and wonderfully made. In some of his scenes, Mr. Robert shows a distinct aptitude for the line of comedy he has chosen, and his work is at all times conscientious. Thomas M. Hunter, as Henry Brown, plays the part of a really good-natured and kindly man, who chooses, for a purpose, to assume a gruff manner with his wife. The good nature predominates all through, however, and finally forces him into a confession that the other character was but a mask. The part of Mrs. Brown, played by a wife, is taken by Miss Corina Jordan, a pretty woman pretty well known. Miss Hile is the girl, a spirited presentation of the character of Myra Clifford, the girl who is in love with Maitland, and who is correspondingly wroth at the deception into which she is forced for the protection of Mrs. Brown. The other characters in the long cast are more or less acceptably filled.

The piece will run all the week, with the usual matinees.

COURT-MARTIAL ENDS.

But the McIntyre Verdict Will Not Be Disposed Yet.

(A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.)
DENVER, Oct. 10.—The naval court-martial in the case of Chaplain McIntyre, has completed its verdict and Capt. C. H. Lauchheimer, judge advocate of the court, is on his way to Washington bearing the document to the head of the Navy Department. No portion of its contents are to be made public until it is given out from the proper authorities at the national capital.

KNIGHTS' TEMPLARS

CONCLAVE AT PITTSBURGH IS WELL UNDER WAY.

Fire at Hotel Richelle Threatens Festivities, but is Extinguished Without Heavy Loss.

A BLAZE OF ELECTRIC GLORY.

EMBLEMS OF TEMPLARISM IN INCANDESCENT LAMPS.

Reception to Grand Master Thomas and Gov. Hastings Yesterday. Encampment Formally Opens Today After a Procession.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
PITTSBURGH (Pa.), Oct. 10.—Fire threatened this morning to throw a mantle of gloom over the first day of the triennial convocation of the Knights Templars. The Richelle Hotel, a four-story structure on Liberty street, opposite the Union Depot, caught fire at 8 o'clock, and for a time the entire block was in danger of destruction.

The guests of the hotel included a number of Knights, but fortunately none of them were hurt. C. M. Yoh of Pittsburgh, was narrowly saved from suffocation, and George Rupp, a sergeant of the Seventh United States Infantry, fell from the second story while making his escape from a third-floor window on a rope. Neither will die. The fire was confined to the cellar and the first floor of the hotel, and the loss will not be heavy.

The convocation is well under way, and the streets are fairly alive with white-plumed knights. Over a hundred commanders of the order are present, and the men on the Pittsburgh Reception Committee arose before dawn to be waiting at the various railroad stations to act as escorts to their guests.

Grand Master Warren Larue Thomas expressed the general opinion of the visiting Knights when he said: "We are going to have one of the greatest weeks in the history of Templarism. The convocation is going to be the greatest that ever attended a triennial convocation, and the work which Pittsburgh has accomplished in the way of entertaining boarders is marvelous. The generosity of the order, and the hospitality of the people overwhelm us."

The brilliancy of the city's street decorations marks an epoch in the history of electric illumination. Within a radius of four blocks from the heart of the city, 400,000 incandescent lamps burn every night. Huge electric crosses and emblems of Templarism are suspended on the sides of the city's tallest buildings, and there is hardly a store or shop in the downtown district which has not an illuminated design of some Masonic significance in its windows. The result at night is that Pittsburgh presents a perfect blaze of electric glory with an effect that has probably never been equaled.

Nothing but bad weather can now interfere with the celebration, which was inaugurated today. Forecaster Ridgway is fearful of slight showers tomorrow, and even heavy rain, but he expects a clearing, and that the skies will be bright during the remainder of the convocation.

The five local commanders opened their headquarters and started the rolling. The day was largely taken up with receptions and welcoming the visitors, followed by a reception in honor of Grand Master Thomas at the Hotel Hastings of Pennsylvania. The real work of the convocation will commence tomorrow, when the grand encampment will be held at the downtown district of the big parade.

The Louisville men are making the strongest effort possible to secure the election of their own Grand Master, and have brought 10,000 white satin badges with the inscription "Louisville 1911," and declare with all the assurance of certainty that they will carry the election to their city before the close of the week. Niagara Falls, Indianapolis, Minneapolis, and Detroit are the other cities in the race.

IT'S GOOD TIME.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
PITTSBURGH, Oct. 10.—The day was chiefly spent by the different commanderies in arranging their headquarters and getting ready to receive their guests and visitors. In this respect the various delegations vied with each other in the matter of preparing the most inviting refreshments, ranging from the glass of ice water up to Kentucky bourbon, California wines and even champagne. The Southerners, in all shapes, sizes and designs are in abundant evidence, and most of the knights are bedecked with decorations of military and general and veteran of at least twenty wars.

Although the business meetings of the order have not yet commenced, the electing of officers for the year is in progress. In this respect, the Louisville people are the marked ones. The grand master of the order, the members of the Minnesota commanderies virtually gave up the contest they had expected to make in favor of St. Paul. Northern New York delegations are "plugging" for all they are worth to have the next convocation held at Niagara Falls. The foremost event of today's programme undoubtedly has been the reception and ball of Tancred Commandery, No. 48, of this city, at the Hotel Hastings, which commenced at 2 o'clock this afternoon, and it is expected that dancing and entertaining with unabated musical accompaniment is to continue until 12 o'clock tonight.

The sights on the streets have never been equalled in this city, as far as the crowds are concerned. Street-car traffic is at a standstill and vehicles of all kinds are banished from downtown thoroughfares, while every inch of ground is monopolized by tens of thousands of pedestrians, who move along like an immense wave of humanity.

W. A. Ryan's Funeral Services.

B. J. Ryan of Alliance, Neb., brother of W. A. Ryan, deceased, arrived in this city yesterday morning at 7:45 o'clock to take charge of his brother's remains, and accompany them to Galesburg, Ill., the home of deceased mother and another brother. The funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock on Monday morning at the cathedral on Main street, the various societies of which deceased was a member escorting the remains from the parlors of Peck & Chase to the church and back again, after the services are over. B. J. Ryan will start for Galesburg on Monday morning.

Italy Retrenches.

ROME, Oct. 10.—Owing to Italy's financial straits, the Minister of Marine has renounced the sweeping naval programme involving the expenditure of $40,000,000 lire, and will be satisfied with naval capital this year of 20,000,000 lire. A ministerial crisis is thus averted. It is expected that the budget for the current year will show a deficit of 17,000,000 lire.

Events in Society.

[The society columns of the illustrated Magazine Section of the Sunday Times are closed at 6 p.m. on Saturday.]

Misses Bessie Bryan and Anne Hendricks were surprised Friday evening at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan of South Grand avenue. Cards and music furnished entertainment for the evening. The guests were: Misses Gertrude McCrea, Mae McCrea, Julia Mercereau, Easton, Abby Easton, Minnie Bryan, Ivy Schroeder, Harriette Goodin, Messrs. McCrea, Laughlin, Clark Klocke, Joe Easton, McGarry, Lew Pratt, Irwin Herron.

Robert G. Wagner of No. 937 Georgia street was surprised Friday evening in celebration of his twenty-first birthday. The parlors were decorated with sprays of pepper branches, bouquets and garlands of flowers, and the evening was spent with music and cards. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hutchinson, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Humphreys, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. McCreary, Mrs. Agnes S. Wagner, Mrs. M. Borroclough, Misses Grace Borroclough, Jennie, Ella and Margaret Wagner, Jean Graham, Messrs. Pettibone, Oscar Sherman, Robert Wagner, Frank Dunwell, Griff, Gordon, Humphreys.

The members of the freshman class of the University of Southern California were entertained with a convivial party by Miss Ruth Brown, Friday evening. The decorations were in the class colors, lavender and white. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hutchinson, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Humphreys, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. McCreary, Mrs. Agnes S. Wagner, Mrs. M. Borroclough, Misses Grace Borroclough, Jennie, Ella and Margaret Wagner, Jean Graham, Messrs. Pettibone, Oscar Sherman, Robert Wagner, Frank Dunwell, Griff, Gordon, Humphreys.

Friday evening a social was held at the home of Miss Marie Bartram by the Intermediate and Junior Society of the Central Presbyterian Church. Many young people were present.

A reception will be given Rev. C. C. McLean, former pastor of Simpson Methodist Episcopal Church, Monday evening at the home of Dr. Raymond W. Hatch, No. 1028 South Hope street.

M. S. Reed of No. 1039 West Eighteenth street entertained friends Friday evening in celebration of the bi-monthly session of the Epworth League, Methodist Church, South. In addition to members of the league there were present a number of friends. The evening was devoted to games and general conversation.

Otto Zottbeek entertained the members of Beta Chapter of Gamma Eta Kappa with a "stag" theater party at the Orpheum Saturday night, after which the party adjourned to Levy's, where supper was served. Those present were Messrs. Tom McCrea, Tom Haskins, Russ Taylor, Robert Aldrich, Charles Stinson, Ed. Jones, Homer Donnell, Fred Hambricht, Vaughn Tomblin, Albert Cook, Hugh Hinton, Robert L. Smith, Carl Spurr, Harry Gregory, Clarence Huggard, Philo Lindley, F. E. Engstrom.

Sixteen little friends of Miss Frances Livengood helped her to celebrate her tenth birthday Saturday afternoon at her home on Alvarado Heights. Those who participated were Misses Bernice Raynolds, Rowena Huscroft, Hattie Keyser, Katie Keyser, Adelaide Warn, Charles Morlan, Grace Reid, William Sampson, George McCord, Ellis Slack, Lawrence Keyser, Jack Bucklin, Paul Bucklin, Jasper Brown, Cecil Courtney, Thomas Reed.

Mrs. Kate Tupper Galpin of South Fremont avenue entertained the members of the Shakespeare Club yesterday afternoon. The study of Hamlet was taken up and discussed by the members of the club. The lesson was conducted by Mrs. Galpin.

Mrs. John Bloemer of No. 506 South Figueroa street entertained a few friends informally at dinner yesterday evening, in celebration of the study of Hamlet, the anniversary of her son, John Bloemer, Jr. The dining-room was decorated with pink carnations.

NOTES AND PERSONALS.

ALL ALONG THE LINE.

The so-called anti-gambling ordinance having gone into effect, we shall soon see, perhaps, whether its purpose is to punish or to protect the gamblers.

It is not to be regarded as a "singular coincidence" that the lights went out in the Pavilion at San Bernardino when Congressmen Castle, began to talk there Saturday night. It was simply a case of cause and effect.

The roasting El Hutch has been given had the effect of butting his head to the Council meeting yesterday, but he couldn't forego politics until the session was over, and spent a good portion of his time in consultation with Bus. Op. Barlow, who might have been in better business.

It should be borne in mind by every Republican who has moved from one precinct to another since the Great Register was issued, and has not had such change of residence noted on the register by the County Clerk, that he must attend to the matter today or tomorrow or lose his vote on election day.

Things have come to a pretty pass when a prosecuting witness in a case of assault with intent to kill can come into court, announce that he has been "fixed" and refuse to testify in the case, and yet this seems to have been practically what was done in the case of Charles Lang, the blacksmith, against Luigi Caranzo in Justice Morrison's court yesterday.

The fair which opened last evening at Turnverein Hall under the auspices of the managers of the Catholic Orphans' Home is deserving of liberal patronage. For many years this institution has been caring for large numbers of parentless and homeless children and educating them in ways calculated to make good and useful citizens of them. Such a charity is one which ought not to have to press its appeal to the public.

While the "agricultural horse trot" is in progress preparations are going on steadily for the more aristocratic horse show. The announcement that August Belmont of New York has consented to act as one of the honorary vice-presidents, and has offered a cup as a prize for a polo pony exhibition, and that other noted horsemen and men of wealth are interested in the show, will give it additional impetus toward success.

Col. A. O. Brodie's letter accepting the nomination for delegate to Congress from Arizona, recently received from Nova Scotia, where the colonel now is, indicates that the man is worthy of the place for which he is named. In it, furthermore, he promises, not only to strive in a general way to further the interests of the Territory, but to be present at all sessions of Congress and appear in person before all committees, who may have under consideration, subjects of interest to citizens of Arizona.

(RAILROAD RECORD.)

OREGON SHORT LINE MEETING.

The seventh to come—Switzman Killed—Canned Milk Rates.

The stockholders of the Oregon Short Line are gathering in Salt Lake in what promises to be a very important meeting. The meeting will be opened today, and not only the Oregon Short Line people will be in evidence, but the Union Pacific will be strongly represented. The general impression is that an effort will be made by the Union Pacific people to gain practical control of the Oregon Short Line.

The Santa Fe officials in this city yesterday received a copy of resolutions passed last Sunday in Chicago by the Knights Templars threatening to cut the road for the services rendered in putting the train through in such admirable manner. It was signed by Homer Laughlin, G. A. Scraggs, and F. Janes, committee.

F. O. Plumb, a switchman in the Southern Pacific yards, at River Station, was killed Saturday afternoon by being crushed between the cars. The Southern Pacific limited to Chicago, via El Paso, is to be known as the Pacific Limited, to distinguish it from the Sunset Limited, which goes to New Orleans.

T. C. Peck of the Terminal is again on duty, after a rather severe illness. Rates on canned milk from Los Angeles to Denver in carload lots have been reduced to 75 cents per 100 pounds.

The Seventh Regiment is booked to return home next Thursday. The Southern Pacific people received a telegram yesterday from General Passenger Agent T. H. Goodman, saying that the boys will come by special train, leaving San Francisco Thursday at 10 a.m.

Mrs. Faulkner and party, who have been doing Southern California in a special car for some days, will return to their home in Texas today. Mrs. Faulkner is the wife of the general manager of the Pecos Valley and Elver road.

The Southern Pacific pay car is distributing about $150,000 in Los Angeles.

FROM nearly every town and hamlet in the United States, commencing on the 1st of October, a special train will be run to Los Angeles and general excellence of my wines, H. J. Woodcock, 214 North Spring.

CATHOLIC ORPHANS' FAIR

PROCEEDS FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE BOYLE HEIGHTS HOME.

Many Fancy Booths Attract the Attention of Visitors—Society People Have Taken a Great Interest in the Fair—Promises to Be a Brilliant Affair.

The Catholic Orphans' Fair, for the benefit of the Orphans' Home of Boyle Heights, opened yesterday evening in Turnverein Hall on South Main street. It promises to be a brilliant affair. Every effort is being made to make it a grand success, and it is hoped that the small indebtedness on the home may be removed by the proceeds.

For more than twenty years fairs have been held for the benefit of the Boyle Heights home, but heretofore it has been decided to hold them every two years. All day yesterday the ladies of the parishes of the city, under the general direction of Sister Cecilia and Mother Superior of the home, were busy arranging the booths, which are especially attractive.

Situated to the right of the entrance is a fish pond booth, decorated in blue bunting, and white snow balls. A picture, representing a fishing scene, ornaments the wall. Mrs. R. L. Bell is in charge of this booth, assisted by the Misses Bell and Mrs. T. H. Carroll.

Mrs. A. D. Gelich has charge of the hat booth, to the left of the entrance. She is assisted by Mrs. Kathleen Stevin, Misses Dawson, Howard, Helen Howard, and Lupe Gelich. The booth is patriotic in its decorations of red, white and blue bunting. American flags are conspicuous everywhere, and a painting of the battleship Maine is displayed on the wall.

The ice cream booth is one of the most attractive. It is presided over by Mrs. John F. Francis, Mrs. A. D. de Gayer, and Miss Dominguez. It is decorated with large bows and festoons of pink and white tulle.

Mrs. Joseph Wolfkill has charge of the tannery booth. Miniature tanneries, strung upon cords and suspended from the ceilings, form an odd drapery for the booth. The Misses Wolfkill and Emma assist.

Mrs. Mary Schaller, assisted by Mrs. Stephen M. White, Mrs. M. Coleman, Mrs. L. A. Grant, Misses Childs, Horne, Childs, Jette, Thom, Carrie Coleman, Echo Allen, and Ruth Howard, is in charge of the cathedral booth, where dolls and other articles will be sold. It is decorated in oriental effect.

St. Vincent booth is presided over by Mrs. John Alton, who has as her assistants Mrs. Buckley, Mrs. Simkins, Mrs. William Reed, and Miss Eberford. Here fancy needlework is sold.

The women of St. Joseph's parish have fitted up a booth with essential rugs and couches, where imported dolls are among the articles for sale. The booth is in charge of Mrs. L. M. Schaller, who is assisted by Miss Mulhardt, T. McCarthy, McGraph, Misses McCarthy, Kilnhammer, Rapp, Schumacher, Mulhardt, Emma Mulhardt.

Misses Sullivan, Meade, Barrett, Suttman, Thompson, Collins, Hookstratton, and Linderfeather, have charge of a booth where tea is served. The booth is decorated with pink and white cosmos with a background of smilax.

A variety of fancy articles are sold in the sodality booth, which is ornamented with white and blue bunting, and decorated with smilax. The articles sold are the work of the children at the Orphans' Home. Those in charge are Mrs. D. F. Donegan, assisted by Mrs. A. Banning, Dr. Helen Anderson, Mrs. Margaret Donegan, Alexander and Philipson.

The candy booth will be presided over by Mrs. S. Grant, assisted by the Misses Grant, La Grande, and Alice Despars. A soda fountain, put up by B. J. Cook, is presided over by Mrs. F. A. Helm, Misses Tessie Cook and Lillian Gonzalez.

The American household booth is an attractive arrangement of American flags. A drapery of brooms, tied with the tri-colored ribbon, is a novel feature. The things sold here comprise a large variety of useful and domestic articles. Those in charge are Misses H. Worthington, J. Murietta, Robinson, Misses Parker, Burkhalter, Rhone, Henrietta Worthington, Jenkins.

The Monte Carlo booth is in charge of Miss Rita de Celis, assisted by Mrs. Forster, Dr. Redon, Misses Ursula, Maguire, Varclan, Denker, Howard, Den. Here the guests are allowed to play harmless games of chance.

Mrs. Rodriguez has charge of a booth, Our Lady of the Angels. In the same booth is a grab bag, a pair of scales and many other attractions, in charge of Mrs. Dillon.

Dinner was served yesterday at noon in the large banquet hall adjoining the hall tables. Dinner will be served each day from 12 to 2 o'clock, and from 6 to 9 o'clock. The dinners are in charge of Mrs. James C. Kays, assisted by Misses William Nordholt, Wolfkill, Le Sage, Herman Limbrook, Misses Agnes Alexander, Wolfkill, Elena Wolfkill, Gordon, Nellie Reardon, Susie Bernard. Tamales will be served in the hall throughout the evenings.

Yesterday evening's programme included: Overture by Arena's Orchestra; introductory remarks, W. H. Workman, president of the Orphans' Home; address, Rt. Rev. Bishop George Montgomery; vocal solo, Miss Teresa Elsenmeyer; vocal duet, Mrs. Mary Schaller and J. P. Burns; vocal solo, Miss Lillie Scanlan; "Ave Maria," Señora Antonio O. Vargela; march, Arena's Orchestra. There will be a different programme each evening.

The committee work has been placed in the hands of prominent citizens as follows:

Doors and Tickets: Victor Ponet, chairman; Thomas Gray. Appeals: I. B. Dockweiler, chairman; D. P. McGarry, I. F. Kennedy, W. H. Workman, W. R. J. Dillon, J. G. Mott.

Speakers: J. C. Kays, chairman; John P. Francis, A. B. Roth, J. O. Sullivan.

Decorations: Sylvester Grant, chairman; William Nordholt, Col. Foy, J. C. Quinn.

Music: Joseph Scott, chairman; J. Alton, George Pausch, J. B. Burns, N. M. Quirrola, A. J. Schwam, J. F. McManey.

Supplies: Thomas Casey, chairman; J. J. Shay, Chris Hickson, I. F. Francis, M. C. Marsh.

Floors: George H. Pausch and P. M. Morony.

Mrs. D. Donegan has been elected president of the fair.

A... WOMAN'S WAY.

"Do I remember ever meeting you before?" queried an elderly gentleman who had just been introduced to a lady who looked a little showy. "Certainly I do; certainly, I remember it as well as if it was yesterday. It was right after the war was over—" "Sir!" she snapped. "Sir! what do you mean by 'after the war was over'?" "Why," said the old gentleman, who saw his mistake at once, "right after the war with Spain." Some women and some goods seriously object to having their ages known, and there are men who never seem to get over 40 who don't dye young. Silverwood hasn't any old goods to work off, so we don't object to your posting yourself on the exact age of anything you buy here. that show an extraordinary bargain distinction. No back numbers or fag ends of lots that have seen better days, but fresh, bright, new, cherry Suits; some only a few days old; while the oldest have seen at the most but three weeks of life.

At either price there are more than one hundred styles to select from. Think of the variety. The fabrics are all wool that have withstood the test that tries the color. Every garment is kneaded into shape by tailors' trained fingers. Linings and trimmings are best. Exposed seams are piped with satin. Painstaking tailoring shows out from every Suit.

Our $9.65 Suits are as well made as are the best Suits sold in other stores. We believe it isn't enough that clothes look well when you buy them. Will they continue to look well? That's the question. All doubts are dispelled when you buy of the largest and best male-outfitting establishment in Los Angeles.

LADIES' OUTER GARMENTS.

The new Cloak and Suit corner is winning new friends daily. It is not so complete as we would wish or as it will be later—but everything is new and choice and the way the floor is crowded all day long tells its own story of moderate prices. If you are interested in the store it will pay you to watch the growth here. Some very handsome plain gowns for matron or miss are assembled. Jackets for tots, maids and mothers. Not many of them look like made garments—more of a tailor air and dash than you usually see. Not much cheap, showy trimmings on ours—mostly plain and rich—elegantly pressed and tailored—even the lowest priced. A few very choice separate skirts at moderate prices and some extra pretty silk waists have just come in.

Council Invites Proposals for Sites for New Fire Engine Houses. Westlake Protected from Oil.

ELECTION LAW TO BE TESTED.

DR. JULES F. ROTH WINS ON HIS COMMISSION CONTRACT.

Lamanda Park Alleged Highway Examined-Motion Before the Supreme Court on the Water Litigation.

Col. George H. Mendell, the San Francisco engineer, who has won distinction by his work in the government service, has consented to serve as the third member of the board of arbitration to determine the sum which must be paid by the city to the water company for its plant. Col. Mendell's acceptance was announced to the Council yesterday by a letter from James C. Kays, the city's arbitrator.

The oil men have lost their fight for permission to dig for petroleum within 1600 feet of Westlake Park. The Council yesterday ratifying the recommendation of the Board of Public Works that no amendment should be made to the present restrictive ordinance.

The Council has invited proposals for sites for the engine houses to be built with the proceeds of the sale of the new fire bonds. The plans proposed by the soap company for its new factory have been approved, with a condition that no malodorous smells will be allowed. A dog ordinance is in course of construction, aimed to protect public health from vagrant curs infested with diphtheria and scarlet fever germs.

The contradictory clauses of the election law relating to the time when registration must close are to be submitted to legal test. A properly qualified elector has petitioned the court for a writ of mandate addressed to the County Clerk to compel him to enter his name on the supplemental register. This will bring up the question Thursday morning at which time the petition has been made returnable in Judge Allen's department.

This morning the application for a writ of certiorari to review Judge Oster's amendatory order will be made by the attorneys for the City Water Company before the Justices of the Supreme Court.

Col. Mendell Asks $5000 for His Services-Circus License Remains Unreduced-New Soap Factory Plans Approved-Germ-bearing Dogs to Be Exterminated.

The announcement that Col. George H. Mendell has consented to serve as the third member of the Board of Arbitration to fix the value of the plant of the Los Angeles City Water Company, which the municipality is about to purchase, made yesterday's session of the City Council a notable one. Col. Mendell's appointment was announced by the Times last week. The arbitrators until yesterday refused to confirm or deny the correctness of the statement, but when Mr. Kays, the city's representative, yesterday received Col. Mendell's telegram of acceptance, he at once sent word to the Council, which was the first official statement in the premises.

The morning session of the Council was entirely devoted to routine business. In the afternoon a number of important matters came up. The oil men were refused permission to encroach within the 1600-foot limit which protects Westlake Park from derrick; the Los Angeles Soap Company was granted permission to go ahead with its new factory, proposals were invited for fire-engine houses; a new dog ordinance was started on the legal road to adoption and other affairs of general interest were acted upon. The Council's morning session was brief and little business was transacted except routine matters. El Hutch was present, and on occasion, reference, probably due to the showers of blame which have fallen upon him lately because of his neglect of his official duties.

Reports were received and approved from the Council committees, as hitherto published, and from the heads of departments. Bids were opened for printing the proposed new city charter for twenty consecutive days, as required by law. The bids per inch per inserted line were as follows: Herald, 25 cents; Express, 27 cents; Times, 40 cents. In explanation of its bid, the Times stated that it proposed to print the charter in a solid nonpareil, in which type the entire document could be printed in 766 lines per day. This would make the total cost probably less than the cost of having the charter printed in the papers, which would make a smaller bid per inch. Furthermore, the Times' circulation is three times that of either of the other newspapers bidding. The bids were referred to the Finance Committee with instructions to report at the afternoon session. In the afternoon a report was presented, recommending that the bid of the Herald Publishing Company be accepted at the rate of 25 cents per inch for each insertion; the first publication to be made Wednesday morning, October 12, 1893.

STREET WORK.

With the report of the City Engineer were presented final ordinances establishing the grade of Sixth street from Mateo street to the west line of the Southern California railway right-of-way, and establishing the grade of Fresno street from Fourth street to First street; the assessment diagrams for the sewerage of Central avenue between Eighth street and Ninth street; for the sewerage of Palmer street between Hemlock street and Central avenue; for the sewerage of Crocker street between Seventh and Palm street; for laying a cement walk six feet wide on each side of Bailey street from First street to State street; Petition No. 886 was returned. Ordinances were presented establishing the width of the sidewalks on Bixel street from Third street to the north termination of Bixel street at nine feet, and establishing the grade of Palmetto street from Mateo street to the east line of Arthur tract.

The ordinances were all passed under suspension of the rules. The City Engineer asked to be instructed as to the limits of the district of assessment for the widening of Pasadena avenue.

F. C. Hannon's petition to be allowed to lay a temporary track along Sixth street, from Fremont to the reservoir on Orange street, which it is proposed to fill, for the purpose of transporting earth from Sixth street, now being graded, was granted.

The City Clerk's report, hitherto printed, was approved, and action taken in accordance with all his recommendations.

who declared that the present license is so high as to be almost prohibitive. Wallace Bros. are billed to appear here at the end of the month, sent Attorney Charles McFarland to plead their cause. He declared that San Francisco Oakland charged $100 a day, Buffalo $10, and few east-ern cities more than $75. In Los Angeles $250 must be paid the first day and $150 for each day thereafter. In addition there is a daily county tax of $50 and a city tax of $25 for each sidewalk or after-show.

"I won't run the bluff on you of saying the circus won't come here at all if you the license," said Mr. McFarland, "for that isn't so."

The Council heaved a sigh of relief and, satisfied that there was no danger of deprivation of the privilege of seeing the show, the august body at once sat down on the proposition to reduce the license.

Copper Colored Splotches.

I was afflicted with a terrible blood disease, at first, but afterwards spread all over my body. These soon broke out to sores, and it is easy to imagine the suffering I endured. Before I became convinced that the doctors could do no good, I had spent a hundred dollars, which was really thrown away. I had tried various patent medicines, but they did not reach the disease. When I had finished my first bottle of S. S. S. I was greatly improved.

POKER ROOMS RAIDED.
First Arrest Made Under the Recent POKER Ordinance.

Ever since the poker ordinance went into effect last Saturday the detectives have been laying for evidence of an infraction of the new law before making any arrests. The object aimed at is to close up all rooms, or so-called "clubs," where percentage, the "kitty," or any other system in which the house gets a rake-off, is in force. As a general rule, the most of the money handled by people who imagine they can play poker, and frequent such places, finds its way into the capacious maw of the "kitty." Hence the alleged clubs have flourished financially and increased in number.

The owners of the places have been very cautious since the ordinance went into effect, and the officers were unable to discover any infraction of the law until yesterday afternoon, when they raided the Arizona club rooms at No. 115 South Main street, of which William Dunn is supposed to be the proprietor. Two men giving the names of J. P. Wilson and A. B. Smith, were arrested, charged with conducting the place, and taken to the Police Station, in addition to a load of chairs, poker tables, a desk containing cards, poker chips and other paraphernalia.

It is supposed the majority of the other places will await the outcome of this case before attempting to resume general operations, and that they will bend all their energies toward securing the annulment of the present ordinance.

SWISS SHORTY'S "DOUGH"

"BULL" WILLIAMS SAYS IT WAS USED CORRUPTLY.

Prosecution of Caranzo Collapsed.

The Assistant District Attorney Says, Because Witnesses Were "Fixed"—C. E. Lang's Lapse of Memory.

"Your Honor, I move that this case be dismissed. The people's witnesses have been fixed with Shorty's dough, and I refuse to waste any more time with such testimony."

Such, in effect, was the language used by Asst. Dist. Atty. Williams yesterday in Justice Morrison's court, after he had heard the testimony of several witnesses in the case of the people against Luigi Caranzo, charged with assault with intent to commit murder.

Caranzo is a short, beetle-headed Italian-Swiss, who was arrested a short time ago on the charge of murdering assault on Charles E. Lang, an East Side blacksmith. On the night of September 4, Lang and several friends were in the shadow of death in the neighborhood of the Plaza, when a man, accompanied by two women, came along. Words passed between the parties and the quarrel ended in a free fight, during which Lang was stabbed by the escort of the women. Police Sergeant Smith arrived at the scene of the fray in time to see a short, thick-headed man jab Lang several times with a knife, but the stabber ran away before the officer could place him under arrest.

Lang was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where it was found that the knife had penetrated to one of his lungs. For a little while it looked as though his wound might prove fatal.

While in the shadow of death, Lang was quite positive that he could identify his assailant, and he was eager to have him brought to the court. The description of the culprit that Lang gave tallied exactly with Caranzo, who was known to be the intimate friend of one of the women concerned in the case.

A complaint charging Caranzo with the assault was sworn to by Lang, and a warrant of arrest was issued, but Caranzo was in hiding for several weeks.

In the interim Lang told the detectives that he had been offered money to square the case, and the detectives say they know positively that $75 was put in the hands of an attorney to be paid to Lang if he would not prosecute.

Lang denied that he accepted a bribe, but one day Caranzo came out of hiding and was placed under arrest. Thereafter Lang showed great reluctance, the officers say, to go on with the case, but they were satisfied that Caranzo was the stabber, and were determined to make him answer for it.

At the preliminary examination yesterday, Dr. Ralph Hagan, the police surgeon, testified as to the nature of Lang's wounds. Then Lang himself was put on the witness stand. The result was as the officers had anticipated. Lang's memory went completely blank on him. He could not remember the appearance of the man who stabbed him, and he looked at the defendant over carefully, and gave the opinion that he was not the man.

At this exhibition of forgetfulness, Asst. Dist. Atty. Williams lost his temper. "Shorty's dough," he said, "has fixed the witness all manner of sarcastic questions, and roasted him unmercifully in side remarks. Williams unsparingly said that he believed Lang's lapse of memory was due to a money consideration."

The next two witnesses, G. H. and W. E. Parsons, who were Lang's companions on the night of the fight, were afflicted with similar mental obtuseness. Williams said he did not care for their testimony, but simply wanted to put them on record. He remarked that they also had received some of "Shorty's dough," and after they had both reiterated on their solemn oath that they could not identify the defendant as Lang's assailant, Williams moved the dismissal of the complaint, and the court so ordered.

A peculiarity of the case was that none of the impeached witnesses represented the institutions of the Assistant District Attorney. They simply skinned and skinned under his strictures, but not one of them entered a protest or offered to break his head.

However, Williams's enormous size may have served as a warning to the obstreperous witnesses. To curb their desire to take a fall out of the court, who virtually accused them of taking "dough" to give perjured testimony.

As a parting shot, Williams shouted after the defendant as he was leaving the court in company with his attorney: "Don't let them bleed you too heavily, Shorty."

"Shorty," as Caranzo is nicknamed, evidently had some "dough" left and was bent on parting on good terms from his late fellow-sufferers in the City Jail, for immediately after his discharge, he went to a baker's shop and bought a supply of pies and doughnuts, which he took to the Police Station, and delivered to the jailer with the request that the pastry be added to the prison bill of fare.

Recovered the Bonds.

Ernest Demaria, a French tailor, made an excursion through the tenderloin district Sunday evening and loaded up on wine and things, and he became exceedingly weary. He finally fell into the arms of the officer on that beat, who took him to the station to sleep off that tired feeling. When a search was made of his pockets, the officer found he had on his person $150 in bills and 17 cents in change. He said he had been robbed of $100 in United States bonds, so yesterday morning Detective Goodman started out to trace them up.

He hunted up a certain Italian living on Alameda street, and in a few moments had possession of the bonds. The Italian said Demaria had dropped the bonds the night before, and he had picked them up. Before the Italian acknowledged to Goodman that he had them, the officer assured him they were of no value to any one except the owner. On hearing this the pilgrim from sunny Italy immediately concluded that he had the bonds, and turned them over to the officer.
